6. Reports

6.1 Principal Report – Kandise Salerno

- Went through the school fees that were submitted for the 2025/26 school year.
- Went through the continuous growth plan for next year. They would like to bring the students together more often with Father or Sister. Celebrations of students to increase togetherness.
- Finding alternative ways to continue to connect with students by the behavioural specialist and the social worker.
- Two new additions to the handbook. 1. There is an athletic clause- a STUDENT athlete statement has been added. 2. Will be changing the backpack policy to not allow backpacks in the classroom. This will be a minor change for students and is a safety change as classes get fuller. Students have moved away from needing supplies to do their work as it is 75% digital.
- April 23 Multicultural Day- was a lovely way to celebrate each other

- May 12- the whole school participated in Track and Field Day.
- Grade 9's wrote Part A PAT ELA exams at the end of May.
- Grade 8's had their Edo Japan day where the grade 3s came to visit and tour. Successful day.
- Badminton season wrapped up successfully- 3rd place overall
- Flag football- Boy's finished first in their tier and girls' finished 2nd.
- Photo booth was very popular at the Grade 9 farewell.
- Study day- June 16. Teachers will offer flex sessions if students would like to come.
- Exams go to June 19.
- June 23 activities and school wide dance.
- Grade 9s to WEM on June 24 and 7 and 8's going to Millenium on June 24
- Last day of school June 25.
- Reports digitally created at 4pm on June 25.

6.2.1 Chair Report – Kari Brennan

- Nothing to report

7. Old Business

7.1 New Grant – Submission has been received by the government. There have been no updates.

7.2 Mother's Day Fundraiser – Bonnie Doon Flowers are doing a spring fundraiser. Offering pansy bowls. Resale is $25/pot. Sold a lot. Next time could increase the price $2-$3 to increase profits. $298.90 was the profit. 40-50 pots were sold.

7.3 Teacher Appreciation Lunch: Lunch was served June 5. It was well received and lovely. Very much appreciated. 6 staff are leaving.

7.4 Grade 9 Farewell: Church and slide show was well-received. Went back to FMT- photo booth was a hit. Dance was in the gym. Photos were printed and texted to students which they enjoyed.
